¹Allvoice urges that the Court enter this order notwithstanding Microsoft's motions to transfer for the reasons set forth in the motion filed contemporaneously herewith. Microsoft's position is that the Docket Control Order and Discovery Order should not yet be entered in this case in light of Microsoft's pending motions to transfer. On October 2, 2009, Microsoft filed its Motion to Transfer to the Southern District of Texas (Dkt. No. 15), and on December 21, 2009, Microsoft filed its Motion to Transfer to the Western District of Washington (Dkt. No. 23). Both transfer motions have been fully briefed and are thus ripe for decision by this Court. In the event the Court denies Microsoft's transfer motions or decides that the Docket Control Order and Discovery Order should be entered prior to resolution of the transfer motions, Microsoft proposes that this Docket Control Order be entered in this case. Notwithstanding Microsoft's position regarding the pending transfer motions, Microsoft and Allvoice have agreed upon the dates and terms set forth in this Docket Control Order.

	(2) A disk or disks containing the transcripts of Video Depositions played during trial, along with a copy of the actual video deposition. After verification of exhibit lists by the Clerk, the lists shall be filed by the Clerk, and the disk or disks containing the exhibits in PDF format shall be stored in the Clerk's Office, Tyler Division.
